

Overseas Travel - (1 July 2019 to 30 June 2020)Department for Innovation and Skills Public Sector Employees

No. of Travellers	Destination	Reasons for Travel	Total Cost
2	Germany, Switzerland (Europe), England (UK)	The focus of the business mission is on skills, supporting labour market development and growth, strengthening industry participation and identifying contemporary vocational education and training (VET) approaches. This mission will look at adopted practices that have led to successful microeconomic reforms in Germany and the UK, particularly in the areas of skills, training, skilled migration and economic growth.	31,172
1	Malaysia, Vietnam (Asia)	To continue to promote South Australia's business migration program by working with key migration agents, new migration agents and potential clients and stakeholders.	7,405
1	Ulsan (South Korea)	To participate as Vice-Chair of the Asia Pacific Music Meeting Forum Committee, including meetings with Government officials and international creative industries professionals. Air fares and Accommodation funded by The Ulsan Arts and Culture Foundation (UACF).	485
1	Toronto (Canada), Paris (France)	To attend a study tour of key international sites, including MaRS Discovery District, Station F, and Le Cordon Bleu to inform the development of the Innovation Centre, the International Centre for Food Hospitality and Tourism Studies, and assist in the future success of the Lot Fourteen Start-up Hub.	9,100
3	Guangzhou, Shanghai, Jinan, Qingdao (China).	To attend the 2019 Executive Excellence Program: China Connect, coordinated by the Office of the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment (OCPSE) Leadership Academy. China Connect formed part of the Executive Excellence Program in which South Australian Public Sector executives participated in a short-term visit to China to gain broader perspectives, new ideas and approaches, and strengthen the Sister-City relationship between Shandong Provincial People's Government and the Government of South Australia.	9,700
2	Shanghai, Hangzhou, Changsha, Guangzhou and Hong Kong (China).	To continue to promote South Australia's business migration program by working with key migration agents, new migration agents and potential clients and stakeholders.	16,178